

Presents: “Emerging Trends in the Wynwood Art District”

The red-hot Miami art scene is drawing attention from around the globe. A fusion of American, Latin, Caribbean and European styles and interpretations are convalescing around a former warehouse district north of downtown Miami. Our gallery tour selects the most promising and exciting of these exhibits from the Wynwood Art District’s evolving art scene. It is these artists that will be featured on the tour. At our first stop, mimosas will be served to ease guests into a contemplating mindset.

The second gallery will change the pace, alter the tempo and move us to new discoveries. The owner and staff of each gallery will be on hand to introduce the featured works and answer questions.

Our final stop gives us the opportunity to check out one of several prominent collections that anchor the district. These could include galleries or permanent collection facilities. With its contemporary themes in modern art and color, Miami is HOT!
