to her own evolution and the evolution of her art that allows her to transcend the individual disciplines and just create... beyond photography. She is a Miami-based professional photographer and multidisciplinary exhibiting artist that is illuminated by nature, permaculture and the healing arts. Florida International Magazine called her a Power Player as one of 100 individuals pushing Florida into the future. Her photography has been published in Ocean Drive's Art Basel Magazine, Florida Inside Out, Elle, Haute Living, 944 Magazine, Miami Modern Luxury, Ego Trip and Latina Magazine.

“i love miami 365®”: photo journal is a 366 page, coffee table book radiating the soul of the Magic City from the inside out. Every day of an entire year was an inspirational journey of gratitude, celebration and the beauty of life... deep within the heart and soul of the Magic City, and photographed by Alissa Christine. The mission: to share the energy of this wonderland through a heart that remains enchanted. It is a love song to the place she calls home- in a way that only she can sing it!
